

York Supervisors Seek Applicants for the Colonial Services Board

Yorktown, April 19—The York County Board of Supervisors is currently seeking applications from County citizens interested in serving on the Colonial Services Board for future vacancies. This is a regional Board and serves to provide overall administration and coordination of mental health, mental retardation, and substance abuse programs. Members meet the first Tuesday of each month at 4:00 p.m. at the Colonial Mental Health office located at 1657 Merrimac Trail in Williamsburg.

York County citizens interested in applying for future appointment to the Colonial Services Board may obtain an application at the County Administrator's Office at 224 Ballard Street in Yorktown, or by calling 890-3320. Applications may also be obtained and filed by using the County website. Enter the County's website at www.yorkcounty.gov, click on On-Line Services, click on Board Bank Application and click on Continue to Board/Commission Application Form.
